

An aerial photograph of a coastline. On the left, a long pier extends into the blue ocean. The beach is sandy and curves along the shore. To the right, there are steep, tan-colored cliffs. At the base of the cliffs, several buildings and a parking lot are visible. The sky is clear and blue. In the top right corner, there are three diagonal yellow stripes on a dark blue background.

LET THE JOURNEY BEGIN

UC San Diego
International Students
& Programs Office

Congratulations on your admission to UC San Diego!

Dear New Triton,

The International Students & Programs Office (ISPO) would like to warmly welcome you as you begin this exciting journey as a new Triton.

This journey is not one you will travel alone. There are nearly 10,000 international students from over 100 different countries at UC San Diego. These fearless innovators and bold risk-takers have paved a way for you to start building your future here as well!

ISPO offers a wide array of services and programs for international students and their families before and after they begin their program at UC San Diego. Our knowledgeable staff are here and ready to help educate and guide you through visa regulations in the United States as well as assist you in achieving your personal, academic and professional goals.

Please take a few moments to carefully review all of the information enclosed here in your ISPO Welcome Packet. This packet is filled with helpful tips and important information designed to help you navigate through your first steps as a new international student.

If you have any questions about the admissions process, be sure to check out the Frequently Asked Questions (FAQs) located on our website which offers insight and answers provided by current students who were once in your shoes! Visit our website at iNewStudent.ucsd.edu

Congratulations, New Triton! We can't wait to meet you.

Sincerely,

Your friendly staff at the

TRAVEL PLANNING TIP:

ISPO recommends that you schedule 2-3 hours between connecting flights, or when crossing a land border to allow enough time when passing through a U.S. Port of Entry. Also, ensure your immigration documents are in-hand ready to present at the Port of Entry and not in your checked-in luggage!

IMMIGRATION DOCUMENTS AT A GLANCE

FORM I-20 (F-1 STUDENTS) OR FORM DS-2019 (J-1 EXCHANGE VISITORS)

This document is provided to you by the iPortal after you complete your request. It reflects your program information and is indicative of which visa type you will begin your program in upon arrival to the U.S. Validate this form by taking the following steps:

- 1 REVIEW your Form I-20 or DS-2019 for accuracy. Take note of your Program Start Date.
- 2 SIGN and date the form at the bottom of page 1.
- 3 PAY SEVIS I-901 Fee to activate this document. Visit www.fmjfee.com to make this payment.

FORM I-94

Your Form I-94 is an online arrival and departure record. It shows when you last entered the U.S., in what status, and for how long you are permitted to remain in the U.S. Visit i94.cbp.dhs.gov to generate this document upon arrival.

PASSPORT

This document is issued by your country of citizenship. Ensure that this document has at least 6 months validity in the future.

U.S. VISA

This is a page located within your passport. A U.S. Visa is issued by a U.S. Consulate outside the U.S. upon approval of an F or J Visa. You'll need a valid and unexpired visa each time you seek entry into the U.S. If you have a valid F-1 or J-1 visa, you do not need to re-apply for the F-1 or J-1 visa.

ISPO NOTE: Citizens of Canada do not require an entry visa but must present the Canadian passport, UC San Diego Form I-20 or Form DS-2019, financial statements and proof of payment of the SEVIS fee when entering the U.S. from Canada.

If experiencing difficulties at the U.S. port of entry,
